WAR FORTUNES CHANGE; DUNKIRK HERO GIVES UP ISLAND OF MADAGASCAR

LONDON, May 7—Changing fortunes of war were vividly illustrated today when the British took Madagascar.

The man who surrendered on behalf of the outnumbered French army was Brigadier General Alfred Guillaumet, who proffered his sword to British Major General Sturges. At Dunkirk in the memorable June of 1940, Guillaumet fought shoulder to shoulder with the British. He was cited for his personal courage and enterprise in aiding in the safe evacuation to England of almost 300,000 British and French troops.

Smashing Blow At Tokyo's Naval Units Claimed By MacArthur's Office

By LEE VAN ATTA
UNITED NATIONS HEAD-QUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, May 7—American and Australian bombers dealt a smashing blow to Japanese naval units based north of Australia in a successful engagement in the Solomon Islands, Gen. Douglas MacArthur revealed today.

At the same time it was revealed that enemy naval activity in the vicinity of Rabaul, New Britain, was increasing. Jap air action around Port Moresby, however, was said to be lessening.

Production Line Notes

Ten Times More Tanks Produced Than Firm Had Expected

By International News Service
MORE TANKS—Baldwin Locomotive works will be producing ten times as many tanks in its Philadelphia area plant late this year as was planned when the Army launched its production program a year ago.

MORE PLANES—The Curtiss Warhawk, successor to the famed Curtiss Tomahawks and Kittyhawks, is now in mass production.

MORE TIME—War workers in the Packard Motor Car company's automatic screw department have voluntarily given up their half hour lunch periods three days a week in a "win-the-war" program.

MORE GIFTS—The American Red Cross has shipped 598,000 "requested" articles, hand-knitted by volunteers, to the nation's armed forces.

MORE RAYON—Domestic production of rayon yarn and staple fibre was 153,900,000 pounds during the first quarter of 1942 as compared with 131,200,000 pounds during the same period last year.

CHICAGO TO CALL OFF LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION

CHICAGO, May 7—Chicago's International Livestock exposition, the biggest exhibition of its type in North America for the last 42 years, will not be held this year.

Directors of the exposition decided against the 1942 show because of a possible transportation shortage. At last year's show more than 12,000 animals from all parts of the United States and from Canada were brought to Chicago to compete for prizes. The attendance at the eight-day exposition was in excess of 400,000.

Yunnan May Be Center Of Any Planned Counter Drive On Nippon

NEW DELHI, May 7—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek has arrived on the Burma border while other reserves were believed to have been rushed into Yunnan province to battle Japanese units pushing northeastward from Wanting.

Chinese reinforcements reportedly accompanied Chiang in his dramatic trip over the Burma border while other reserves were believed to have been rushed into Yunnan province to battle Japanese units pushing northeastward from Wanting.

The main body of the Chinese Fifth and Sixth Armies in Burma are known to be virtually intact despite their heavy burden of the last few weeks, although two divisions suffered considerable losses on the Toungoo and Salween fronts.

These two armies, combined with other forces still in good fighting condition and fresh reinforcements from other parts of China, could muster substantial striking power if the counter-offensive is decided on, observers agreed.

BRITISH ATTACK STUTTGART AREA FOR THIRD TIME

LONDON, May 7 — Stuttgart, important industrial city in southwest Germany, was attacked "in force" for the third straight time early today by British bombers. Other objectives in southern Germany also were blasted.

The Berlin radio claimed that incendiary bombs damaged the residential area of one small town in a rural district. Four RAF planes were said to have been shot down.

About 7,500 Expected To Sign For Rationing Cards On Closing Day

Wednesday's sugar registration set a new high for local boards with 6,645 persons signing up in the county. Officials in charge of the program are pleased with the manner in which schools are handling the important job. They expect about 7,500 persons to sign up for the war ration books Thursday, the final day of the registration.

Of those filing applications 6,054 were awarded books with 591 reporting that they now have an excess supply of sugar. To date 1,470 persons in the county have admitted their over-supply of sugar to the various registrars. Wednesday sign-up was as follows in the various districts: Darby township, 381 applications with 350 receiving sugar stamps; Deer Creek township, 351 and 343; Jackson township, 228 and 224;

Flier Near Death Tells Of Feelings

Odds Of Three To One Make Temples Pound, Nerves Tighten

By MERRILL MUELLER
UNITED NATIONS HEAD-QUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, May 7—"Your temples pound, your nerves tighten, you break into a cold sweat and shrink to the smallest possible size, knowing the armor plate will protect you if you are careful.

"Then, at last, those orange spots you've been seeing ahead and behind materialize as slugs that rip into your plane. The motor conks out. Cripes, you hope he misses. Then, suddenly, you've been shot down but you're alive."

That is how it feels to a fighter pilot to be blasted from the skies by unequal odds of three to one. It was told to me by a boy who should know. He has taken part in a number of air battles and had accounted for one Japanese bomber and two Zero fighters before he was jumped by a superior number (Continued on Page Two)

U. S. NAVY KEEPS EYE ON FRENCH SHIPS IN SOUTH

WASHINGTON, May 7—With relations between the United States and Vichy France at a critical stage, the American Navy today is patrolling the waters of Martinique and Guadeloupe, the two French possessions in the Caribbean.

A daily patrol of these French territorial waters is being carried out by an American warship and naval seaplanes. Purpose of the patrol is to watch the French warships, including an aircraft carrier and a cruiser, in the harbor at Martinique and to make sure that axis submarines do not attempt to use either Martinique or Guadeloupe as a base of operations in the Caribbean.

Under the terms of an existing agreement with the French high commissioner of Martinique, the French warships are not supposed to leave the harbor without prior notification to this government.

In view of the strained relations with Vichy as a result of Pierre Laval's return to power and the British occupation of Madagascar, it is feared that the French high commissioner might be instructed to disregard the agreement with this government and to order the warships to attempt to make a dash out into the open sea.

EXPLOSION REPORTED
NEW YORK, May 7—The British radio today reported a violent explosion in a factory at Kerk-rade in occupied Belgium.

They Lead Island Attack

THIS photo flashed from London shows the two military leaders who are directing the British attack on the French island of Madagascar which lies athwart United Nations' supply routes in the Indian ocean. At

SMALL FRENCH UNIT GIVES UP

Commons Listens To Churchill Outline Attack Plans

By LEO V. DOLAN
LONDON, May 7—Great Britain scored her first major victory in the Far Eastern theatre of war today by smashing all organized resistance and capturing the naval base of Diego Suarez at Madagascar and placing the huge Indian ocean island under British and Free French sovereignty.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill himself announced that the naval and military commanders at Antsirane who control the island's defenses had capitulated after less than 48 hours of bitter fighting.

Negotiations are now proceeding for the terms of surrender. A huge British fleet which participated in Britain's first offensive action against a potential Japanese base of aggression will steam into Diego Suarez bay this afternoon, victory emblems flying.

Strong Forces Used
"Very strong forces" of all British arms were used in the operation, planned over a period of three months, Churchill said, the object being to achieve a victory as speedily as possible and thus avoid unnecessary bloodshed.

"Our first assault against one of the French positions was repulsed with losses which might exceed 1,000 men," he said.

"But Major General Sturges attacked again last night and captured the position."

"French naval and military commanders surrendered and the town of Diego Suarez was captured."

"We trust the French nation in time to come will regard the episode as a recognizable step in liberation of their country—including Alsace and Lorraine—from the German yoke."

MOSCOW — Thousands of Frenchmen were reported by the Moscow radio today to have marched through the streets of Lyons in a demonstration against the Vichy regime, shouting, "long live De Gaulle, to hell with Laval."

This dispatch was sent from an enemy country, whose motive in releasing news is likely to be propaganda. Axis claims should be credited only when confirmed by American or Allied sources.

ROME (By Official Italian Wireless)—The Italian high command reported today that a British attempt to land forces on the island of Kupho south of Crete had been "frustrated" by the island's defenders. (Editor Note: There was no confirmation of the reported landing attempt from British sources.)

MOSCOW—Soviet news agency, Tass, reported in a dispatch today from Berne that a group of German staff officers recently had inspected the coast of French Morocco and air bases there with a view to building new airdromes and wireless stations.

CHUNGKING—Japanese forces have occupied Wanting in western Yunnan province and now have reached Chafang, 88 kilometers inside the Chinese border, a Chungking government spokesman said today.

Fall Of Forts To Hurt Allied Cause

Japanese Have Almost Undisputed Reign In Far Pacific; Big Bases Nippon's

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, May 7—The War department announced today that a total of 11,574 soldiers, sailors and marines and civilians was trapped on the Manila bay forts at the time of their capture by the Japanese. This number includes 2,275 naval personnel, 1,570 marines, 3,734 American soldiers, 1,280 Philippine scouts, 1,446 soldiers of the Philippine army and 1,269 casuals, including civilians.

WASHINGTON, May 7—Capitulation of American forts in Manila bay today gave Japan almost undisputed mastery of the far Pacific and left the United Nations with the increasingly puzzling problem of regaining vast areas lost in five months of blitzkrieg warfare in oriental waters.

Considering the fact that the Nipponese now may use Manila bay as a base of operations, in addition to Singapore and Soerabaja, because of the fall of Corregidor, military and naval experts foresaw the following as possible immediate moves by the Japanese:

1—Since the Japanese now are extending their domination to all the important islands in the Philippines as rapidly as possible, the enemy may be expected to begin "cashing in" on the vast riches of the commonwealth.

2—With organized resistance virtually wiped out in the Philippines, the enemy now may use the trained forces which have been immobilized there—estimated at more than 250,000—to support thrusts against China, India, Australia, or even possibly Russia.

3—The Nipponese may proceed to re-fortify almost at their leisure bases in the Philippines and the southwest Pacific against the anticipated counter-offensive being planned by the United States and the United Nations.

This, briefly is the picture so far as the United Nations are concerned as the result of the sudden but not unexpected surrender of Lieut. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright's forces on Corregidor, where an estimated 7,000 to 9,000 American-Filipino troops succumbed to superior forces.

Coming within a month after the fall of Bataan, the capitulation of Corregidor and three other Manila bay forts was a severe blow to the United Nations war effort in the Pacific and boosted to nearly 50,000 the number of American-Filipino fighting men now in enemy hands.

MOTHER NEARLY FAINTS AFTER HEARING VOICE OF SON, 22, FEARED LOST
JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 7—It was a voice Mrs. Frank Di Maio never expected to hear again. "I'm all right, Mom," it announced over the telephone. "Maybe I'll be home in a couple of days."

Mrs. Di Maio, who had been summoned to the phone by a grocer near her home nearly fainted. The words were spoken by her son, Anthony, 22, first class seaman on the U. S. light cruiser Marblehead, which reached an east coast port after undergoing heavy bombardment near Borneo in February.

Mrs. Di Maio had given the boy up for lost until she received the phone call last night. Anthony was not permitted to say where he was calling from.

ently in an effort to liquidate the Burma campaign as speedily as possible.

Violent fighting was reported in the hills near Wanting, and Jap warplanes bombed Chinese bases at Lishui and Yushan twice in the last 24 hours.

United Nations observers in New Delhi continued to be encouraged by fresh evidence that American and British fliers have wrested control of the air over Burma from the Japanese. News of new aerial blows against Japanese bases was expected momentarily.

The Royal Air Force units in India, however, were reported en route today to the Chindwin river valley to cover the British retreat in western Burma. Myitkina was reported to be still in British hands, but the fate of Bhamo, 80 miles south, was uncertain.

Japanese units were said to be continuing their advance northward in Yunnan province after forcing across the China border.

In India, meanwhile, preparations for anticipated Japanese patrol raids from Burma continued at a feverish pace. Naga head hunters were reported to be helping the British build strategic military roads on the northeastern frontier.

MRS. SARAH BENNETT, 66, IS DEAD IN DARBYVILLE

Mrs. Sarah Bennett, 66, died Wednesday about midnight at her home in Darbyville of a heart ailment following an illness of several years.

She was the wife of Stephen Bennett who survives together with two sons, Floyd, of Darby and Forrest of Grove City; two daughters, Mrs. Beulah McGhee, of Columbus, and Mrs. Edna Lutz, Lancaster.

Funeral services will be in the Methodist church of Darbyville Sunday at 2:30 p. m. with the Rev. Maurice Culver officiating. Burial in charge of the A. J. Hott company will be in Darbyville cemetery.

The body will be at the home where friends may call until the hour of the funeral.

NEW JERSEY SENIORS TAKE FIREMEN'S JOBS

TEANECK, N. J., May 7—Should any of a group of nine Teaneck high school seniors be a bit tardy some morning they need not bring the customary written excuse from mother.

The boys, none more than 18 years old, today were full-fledged firemen having replaced fire fighters called up by the draft.

The schoolboy-firemen work the night shift, 8 p. m. to 7 a. m. They study between alarms and sleep in the firemen's dormitories and according to Chief Francis A. Murray their work on several fires was efficient.

tails of the operation to the House of Commons.

"The landing has been successfully accomplished," he said.

"By Tuesday evening our troops were in contact with French forces before Diego Suarez, Antsirane and Orange.

"The first assault against Antsirane was repulsed with losses that may exceed a thousand men, but General Sturges again attacked last night and captured Antsirane. The French naval and military commanders surrendered and the town of Diego Suarez also was captured.

"Early this morning there was a further attack on the batteries of Orange in the harbor entrance.

"These now have surrendered and a protocol is being drawn up between the commanders on either side."

The announcement dealt only with the situation on the extreme north of the 1,000-mile island. But the major part of Madagascar's defenses were concentrated in the Diego Suarez area and it was assumed that capitulation there meant surrender of the entire island.

The capture of Antsirane was effected through a diversionary drive on Diego Suarez, a joint admiralty and war office communiqué disclosed.

While British units which landed at Courber bay to the west began a march on Diego Suarez, it was revealed, other forces disembarked a few miles south in the vicinity of Ambarata and gained rapid headway toward Antsirane while the attention of the French defenders was diverted to the northern column.

All armed resistance in the vicinity of Diego Suarez ceased with the fall of Antsirane and only a few pockets east of the naval base needed to be "cleared up," the communiqué said.

Highlights from other fighting fronts included:

1. United Nations fliers of the southwest Pacific again lashed out against Japanese naval units in the Solomon Islands to avenge the fall of Corregidor and the other Philippine forts on Manila bay.

2. A Washington report said the American Navy is patrolling in the vicinity of the French Caribbean possessions of Guadeloupe and Martinique to forestall any attempt of axis submarines to operate from those bases.

3. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek reportedly arrived on the Burma fighting front for conferences with U. S. Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell over the possibility of a Chinese counter-attack against the surging Japanese.

4. Britain's Royal Air Force pounded the industrial city of Stuttgart in southwestern Germany for the third consecutive night in addition to hammering other objectives in the Reich and Nazi-occupied countries.

5. Russian forces scored new successes over the Germans on the Leningrad, Kalinin and central sectors of the long eastern

He had to get special dispensation from Washington because his 6-foot 6-inch height is four inches longer than ship's bunks.

BIG POSSE ENDS TERROR CAUSED BY MASS KILLER

HAMLET, N. C., May 7—Will Dawkins, 50-year-old Negro carpenter who shot and killed five persons, including Hamlet Police Chief John Fallow, was dead today, his body riddled under a rain of bullets from the guns of a 500-man posse.

Hunted since Tuesday when he ran amok and killed his wife, her two sisters and his two-year-old nephew in addition to Fallow, the Negro was trapped yesterday in the Marks Creek swamp, six miles from Hamlet.

With bloodhounds chasing him out of a dense undergrowth, Carpenter raced toward the swamp and twice fired his shotgun at officers and volunteer posse men before he was downed by a volley of bullets and buckshot.

300 GERMAN SOLDIERS KILLED FOR UPRISING

LONDON, May 7—A Tass news agency dispatch from Moscow today said 400 German soldiers mutinied after a heavy defeat on the Brianks front and all were executed.

of planes and crashed into the sea with all his guns blazing.

Of that, Lieut. John Martin Jr., Clearwater, Fla., says:

"I had the guns going full out to ease the crash. When all those Kittyhawk guns are going you lose between 20 and 30 miles an hour speed and that helps, baby, when you've nothing but luck to land on."

Martin 5 Feet 5

Martin is a little fellow—only 5 feet, 5—with reddish brown hair, blue eyes and a wonderful tan as the result of spending most of his time in shorts.

When I met him I was interested in his reactions to being shot down. He laughed and said:

"With the rest of the boys I made a pass through a Jap formation, but I was near the tail of the attack and they jumped me. One was ahead, one was behind and the third lashed at me from the side.

"The fellow at the side failed to hit me and soared overhead but the other boys shot him down. The guy behind pumped cannon machine gun slugs at me continuously. I was weaving, diving, racing in an effort to use my speed to advantage and get out of his range. But the guy up front had other ideas. I saw his guns open up and then felt slugs ripping into my engine. It stopped them.

"The slugs ruined my oil supply and I went down in smoke. The Japs broke away, thinking I was dead.

"The cockpit was filled with fumes, but I managed to glide to within 300 yards from shore before I flattened out over the water. Then I opened fire with all my guns and pancaked into the sea.

"The water filled the cockpit as I struggled to undo the safety belt. It finally slipped off and I kicked free of the sinking plane and swam to the beach.

"However, if it hadn't been for friendly natives and an RAAF rescue party I would have died of starvation, wandering in that desolate bush far from the field."

So what does he want now?

"Revenge on those lousy Japs!"

Jurors who will hear the case are Nyra Davis, Ward Dean, Sam Metzger, Ruth Athey, Jennie Calvert, Charles Rittinger Jr., Jaunita Thomas, D. K. Ruah, Helen M. Weldon, Eleanor Dunlap, Ralph Lewis and Fred Scott.

ALLIED BOMBS HIT SOLOMONS

No. 17 issued from his headquarters here, said:

"PORT MORESBY: Japanese air activity has diminished.

"RABAU: Enemy naval activity is increasing in the general area."

"SOLOMON ISLANDS: Allied bombers successfully engaged enemy naval units in the Bougainville (Solomon Islands) area."

No further details were disclosed concerning the action in the Solomons, where the Japanese for some time have been reported sending in reinforcements to bolster the battered bases to the west on New Britain and New Guinea.

Bolstering Rabaul

Announcement of the increased naval activity around New Britain was seen as an indication that the Japs were attempting to shunt reinforcements into the Rabaul area.

The plight of the Japanese as a result of heavy bombardment of their bases by American and Australian fliers was emphasized by reports that the concerted United Nations attacks had practically eliminated Salamaua, on New Guinea, as a useful base.

An American air force spokesman at an advanced base declared that the raids had definitely weakened Salamaua as a Jap air base. The damaging blasts were credited with decreasing the enemy air attacks against the United Nations base at Port Moresby.

to redeem any stamps but Number 1 during the period of May 5 to May 16. Mr. McDowell pointed out that if grocers take any other stamps during this period that they will have to hold them until their regular redemption period before they can be used at wholesalers to replace sugar sold.

There is the possibility that many consumers shall want to receive their four pounds of sugar at once, but this schedule of stamp usage has been established by the government and will be followed by the local board in its program.

A family unit may redeem all of the number one stamps in all the war ration books held by the unit. Stamp Number 1 may be used and filed by grocers during the period May 6 to May 16 only. Stamp Number 2 will be redeemed by grocers from May 17 to May 30 only; stamp Number 3 from May 31 to June 13 only and stamp Number 4 from June 14 to June 27 only.

Grocers have received cards on which the stamps collected are to be placed each period for regaining sugar sold. These cards are to contain stamps of one series only, such as all number one stamps, for each of the respective periods.

PAUL A. POTTS, WIDELY KNOWN EDUCATOR, DIES

Superintendent Of Schools
In Amanda Heart Victim
At 42 In Lancaster

ACTIVE IN COMMUNITY

Death Comes During Confab
At Courthouse; Widow,
Children Survive

Paul A. Potts, 42, superintendent of Amanda schools, died Wednesday in Lancaster after he was stricken by a heart attack when attending a superintendents' meeting at the county courthouse there.

Mr. Potts, who had been superintendent at Amanda for the last six years and previously of schools in Union Furnace and Laurelville, was widely known in Pickaway county.

He had gained a wide reputation as a singer and was an ordained Methodist minister even though he never entered that field. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Edith Potts; a son, John; a daughter, Jean; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Potts, Murray City, and two brothers, Dick, Gibsonsburg, Ohio, and Charles, Starke, Florida.

Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery, Logan, following services in Amanda Saturday.

A native of Hocking county, Mr. Potts served as superintendent of schools in Laurelville, Hocking county, for 16 years before going to Amanda in 1936. He was social science instructor at Amanda in addition to his administrative duties.

Supt. Potts, a graduate of Ohio university, was a past president of the Fairfield-county Teachers association. He served in the U. S. Navy in the last World War and was commander of Clyde A. Smith Post No. 57 of the American Legion at Amanda and president of the recently organized Lions club at Amanda at the time of his death.

SALES TAX TOTAL IN COUNTY OFF IN LAST MONTH

Sales tax receipts in Pickaway county for April were approximately 14 percent under those for the same month of the preceding year, according to figures released by the county treasurer.

In April, 1941, stamp sales amounted to $7,048.19 while in 1942 the monthly sales dropped to $5,996.22.

This drop of $1,051.97 is largely due to recent government bans on sale of automobiles and other items.

PRICES REMAIN ABOUT SAME AT STOCK AUCTION

Prices prevailing at the weekly livestock market Wednesday remained steady with those of last week's sales with receipts also being about the same. These prices are remaining at the level which the government is expected to enforce for the duration in its 'price freezing' program.

DOG WARDEN'S ACTIVITIES HIT BY EXAMINERS

It was a dog-gone good business that Andy C. Nelson, Fayette county's dog warden, carried on with Ohio State university, state auditors reported Thursday.

Since 1932, Nelson has sold enough of "man's best friends" to the university medical school to net $4,323 which he should have turned over to the county, but did not, it was charged in a report on his books for the period from February 20, 1940 to August 31, 1941.

Moreover, when Nelson ran short of dogs in his own county, he bought some from the Greene county dog warden at 50 cents a head and the Pickaway county warden at 40 cents, according to Examiner Frank E. Smith. The university paid Nelson $1.50 to $2 per dog and he kept the difference, Smith charged.

A finding for recovery of the $4,323 has been made against Nelson and his bondsmen who include a brother, Oliver Nelson, former state treasurer.

Council Transacts Much Business

Persons Who Have Not Paid Sewer Rental Warned

Circleville council engaged in a business-like session Wednesday evening, considering and passing numerous measures of importance to the conduct of the city's affairs.

Foremost among issues handled was a resolution, adopted unanimously which authorized Fred R. Nicholas, clerk of council, to certify delinquent assessments for sewer disposal to the county auditor to be placed on the tax duplicate.

City Solicitor Joe W. Adkins pointed out that between $1,600 and $1,700 is delinquent in the three years of operation of the sewer plant, and that some property owners had not paid any sewer rental fees since the plant was put in operation.

Percentage of delinquency of sewer rentals in Circleville is 4.45 percent. The state average is between 3 and 6 percent.

FINANCIAL REPORT

Council heard a report by Frank A. Lynch, chairman of the finance committee, which revealed balances in all funds amounting to $34,836.68 as of Wednesday, May 5, but with numerous unpaid bills facing officials.

Lynch reported the following balances:

General fund, $13,742.17;
Library fund, $817.88;
Sewer disposal, $8,641.84;
Street repair, $6,958.22;
Gasoline tax, $4,053.68;
Berger hospital, $621.39.

Of the amount in the general fund, $893.37 came from the parking meters from the day they were put in operation and through the first two days of May. In April, the only full month in which the meters operated, receipts were $510.25. Of the total collected from March 10 through May 2, $746.53 is due the parking meter company, the remainder going into the city treasury.

Mr. Lynch pointed out that the city owes the Ohio Water Service company, $6,912 for water hydrant rental; the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric company $3,677.68 on an old street lighting bill, and $343.33 for a December bill.

$115 CLAIM SETTLED

Claim for $115 filed against council by Mrs. Martha Turney, South Scioto street, for injuries she received April 10, 1941, when she stepped on a catch-basin cover at Scioto and Mill streets and then fell into the catch-basin was ordered paid. The order was approved after council's Claims committee investigated the accident in which the plaintiff was hurt, lost time from work and incurred hospital and doctor bills.

ORDINANCE READ

Ordinance authorizing Miss Lillian Young, city auditor, to reimburse the general fund from gasoline tax, auto license and sewer rental funds for payments to the Workmen's Compensation fund of Ohio for the years 1939, 1940 and 1941 was read once and tabled for further consideration before a ballot is taken.

The ordinance was drawn when it was learned the money had been paid from the general fund instead of from the various other funds. Amounts include $674.51 from gasoline tax, $228.58 from auto license tax, and $503.37 from sewer rental.

CITY REIMBURSED

Transfer of $1,641.46 from the sewer rental fund to the general fund was authorized under suspension of council rules Wednesday evening, the money having been previously advanced to the sewer rental fund when negotiations were under way for construction of the plant.

ANOTHER TRANSFER

Another allocation of money was made in an ordinance, passed after first reading, which repays the general fund from the sewer rental fund for payment of bond principal and interest due in 1942 on the disposal plant. The amount transferred is $1,243.75, sufficient to pay $1,000 on bonds and $243.75 on interest.

HOSPITAL REPORT

W. E. Wallace, hospital committee chairman, informed council that he and Councilmen Frank Lynch and George Crites had made a tour of Berger hospital and that many repairs are needed at the municipal institution. Paint is necessary, some furniture must be repaired and other work should be made.

The hospital report for April was submitted by Safety Director E. W. Weiler, having been received from Mrs. Elizabeth Lumpe, hospital superintendent.

It included:

Number of patients on April 1, 12; admitted, 56; treated, 68; discharged, 50; births, 12; deaths, 1; operations, 18; days of care, 368; collections, $1,137.27.

Expenses included: provisions, $909.78; laundry, $103.60; fuel and light, $293.85; medical and surgical supplies, $648.69; employees' salaries, $1,109.80; other supplies, $207.80; insurance, $1.10, and retirement fund, $253.69; total, $3,529.56. Collections in 1942 to date amount to $6,048.59, and expenditures are $7,857.26.

Suggestion by state officials that the hospital's nursery and delivery room be separated was explained to council by Mr. Weiler who recommended that the east sun room of the hospital be used for the nursery in accordance with the suggestion. He said that expense involved would be low. The matter was placed in the hands of the hospital committee and safety director with power to act.

RATIONING OFFICE

Council put its approval on use of a second floor room, which has already been redecorated, by the Circleville rationing board. The request was made by Councilman Don Mason, who is a member of the board. All activities of the board will be centered there after a clerk has been employed.

CONFAB PLANNED

Councilman Frank Lynch called a meeting of council as a committee of the whole for next Tuesday at 8 p. m. to confer with Ohio Water Service company officials on the possibility of the city purchasing the utility. Figures will be shown council concerning the plant's operation and cost. Solicitor Joe Adkins urged council to take definite action, one way or the other soon, since federal changes on municipal bond tax exemptions can be expected almost any time.

The water company parley will follow a meeting of all councilmen in Pearl alley where property owners are protesting closing the alley as requested by officials of the J. W. Eshelman and Sons Milling company. The Pearl alley conference is slated for 7 p. m.

MAYOR'S REPORT

Mayor Ben H. Gordon reported to council that he had collected $401 during April, $44 being fines and $357 in bonds. Of this amount $21 is from state highway patrol cases and goes into the street repair fund.

NEW GRADE PERMITTED

Norfolk and Western railroad was granted permission by council.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filaments which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent urination, backache, swelling, and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisons to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, rashes under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisons waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

cl under ordinance to change the grade of its tracks through part of Circleville in order to escape a 'bump' that prevails at present. By altering the grade the company will do some work on Scioto and Ohio street crossings at its expense.

WATER SUPPLY

Question of need for an emergency water supply in the north end of the city in case present supplies should be broken off was discussed by First Ward Councilman Don Mason. He said that several property owners had asked him about possibility of providing a supply.

A well was dug at Berger hospital shortly after it was constructed and Council President John Goeller that this means of filling the emergency supply question be studied by the safety committee and fire chief.

PARKING SPACES

Safety and service committees of council were instructed by President Goeller to be ready for a complete report at the next meeting, May 20, concerning use of parking space in the business district by taxicabs, express company truck and other businesses.

CRITES EXCUSED

Third Ward Councilman George L. Crites was excused from the meeting, the councilman being out of the city.

MILLION SLAIN BY GERMANS IN CAPTURED LAND

Many Officials Of Free
Countries Insist
Figure Higher

SOME DIE IN PRISONS

Survey Made Of Various Nations Overrun By Nazi Hordes

By KATHLEEN HARRIMAN
LONDON, May 7.—Nazi German overlords of continental Europe, seeking to impose their will on populations that steadfastly refuse to bend the knee to tyranny, have already liquidated almost 1,000,000 dissidents, a check-up disclosed today.

The recent announcement by Nazi authorities in the Netherlands that 72 Dutchmen had been executed led this correspondent to visit the various headquarters of governments in exile to determine the full extent of German sav-agery in dealing with unruly civilians.

The figures obtained are obviously incomplete and do not include secret executions and the thousands dying of starvation in out of the way places or in concentration camps. Information of this type must necessarily be incomplete as the governments in exile are determined to tell nothing that might lead the Germans to their sources in occupied countries.

Here, however, is an appalling list which shows that already more than 890,000 men, women and children—equivalent to the population of Cleveland, Baltimore or St. Louis—have felt the wrath of the Nazi sword:

POLAND—82,000 executed and 37,000 dead in concentration camps.

NORWAY—78 "officially" executed.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA — 420
Czechs executed after trial, while 800 students have mysteriously
"disappeared" and 15,000 persons sent to concentration camps.

YUGOSLAVIA — 236,000 killed.
HOLLAND — 590 Dutchmen and "Dutch Jews" slain.

BELGIUM—86 "official" executions, but Belgian authorities insist the number is far greater than in the last war, when 250 were killed.

FRANCE—500 "hostages" shot and 2,400 others executed for carrying arms. The concentration camp death rate is almost the highest in Europe. In one camp alone 6,000 persons are unaccounted for.

GREECE—40,000 starved to death in Athens or Piraeus alone up to last November, while 800 Greeks have been executed on the island of Crete.

In addition, it is estimated that 500,000 persons were killed in Bulgarian punitive bombing raids on helpless Greek villages last September.

The figures available total 898-738 persons, but there was not a single "free" government spokesman in London who did not insist that the actual figure is far higher. Women and children dying of starvation are not even counted because it is impossible to trace them.

Seventy-Third Enlists
For Service; Ross
Hamilton Joins

Another name was added to the list of Pickaway countians volunteering for Air Corps service at Patterson field, Dayton, when the draft board received notice that Ross Hamilton of Fox had been sworn in at the base.

Hamilton's enlistment in service is No. 73 for the county in all branches since the draft office opened for operation.
Word is awaited concerning enlistment of several others who went to Dayton earlier in the week.

Paul Wellington, son of George Wellington of Ashville, is home on a 10-day furlough from a camp located near Tampa, Fla. Wellington has been making good progress in the Army and hopes to have a second lieutenant's rating by June 1.

WO OF COUNTY SCHOOL BOARDS PICK TEACHERS

Two Pickaway county school boards took action this week to replace vacancies in their teaching staffs for next year.

At a Darby township board meeting Mrs. Gladys Downs, Darby township, was employed to teach the third and fourth grades of that school. This board also employed Miss Margaret Louise

Gensemer, Millersburg, who will be graduated this June from Ohio State university, to handle home economics and social studies in the high school.

Meeting Tuesday evening, the Scioto township board of education employed Miss Hazel Ruth Bachman and Miss Marjorie Miller to fill two openings in their teaching staff. Miss Bachman, Portsmouth, will be graduated this June from Ohio State university and has been hired to teach Latin, Commercial studies and social studies in the Scioto school.

Miss Miller, Delaware, will be among the June graduates at Ohio Wesleyan university and will teach home economics and English.

Various school boards throughout the county will meet in the near future to complete the staffs of teachers.

TREASON-PEDDLERS

SOME fellows in this country, skirting the edge of treason or a little over the edge, pretend to be bitterly wronged and deprived of their constitutional rights when they're not allowed to peddle their wares so freely as usual. As a matter of fact, they nearly all know exactly what they are doing, and have been feeling out the public and the government to find how far they could go and what they could get away with. Some of them, the most daring, trusted so much in their own cleverness or the public dumbness or the government's patience, that they went far over the line and thus got themselves stowed away in places where they will do no more harm for a while.

They and their friends may rave, but they asked for it. Treasonable propaganda may be tolerated in normal times, in a country so free by instinct and habit that it is little afflicted by the ideological fears which bedevil most other countries. But in this new brand of warfare, a total war in which ideas themselves become powerful weapons, such enemies, whether external or internal, have to be recognized and dealt with for what they are.

The Constitution and the Bill of Rights still stand. Speech, press and assembly are still free. The truth about the war, its causes, principles and purposes, must be told freely. But it must not be misrepresented and lied about by public enemies on American soil.

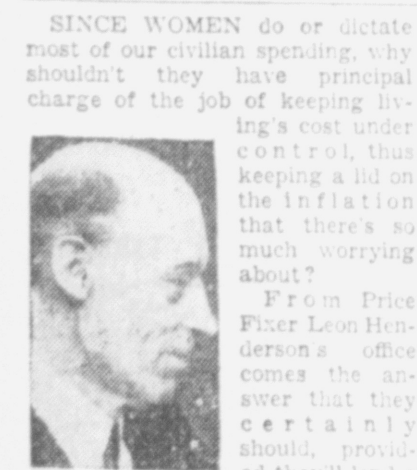

THOSE PRUSSIAN

THE matter with Hitler's Germans is often said to be that they have become Prussianized. Left to themselves, we are told, the Germans are merely a kindly, music-loving race, given to no more harmful activity than beer-drinking. The hard Prussian character, hammered out over the years upon the anvil of battle with a harsh climate and hostile Slavic neighbors, is supposed to have affected the rest of Germany like a disease. De-Prussianize the Germans, and all will be well.

But Pastor Niemoeller, the famous former submarine commander who languishes in a concentration camp because his conscience will not let him compromise with Hitler, is a Prussian. And most of the Nazi gang leaders are non-Prussian. Hitler himself is Austrian.

WORLD AT A GLANCE

Charles P. Stewart

SINCE WOMEN do or dictate most of our civilian spending, why shouldn't they have principal charge of the job of keeping living's cost under control, thus keeping a lid on the inflation that there's so much worrying about?

From Price Fixer Leon Henderson, a housewife comes the answer that they certainly should, provided they'll lend a strong, willing hand. Seemingly they will, for many of 'em have started in at it already, calling would-be profiteers severely to account and filing formal complaints against 'em if they prove to be balky. Many of the girls are quite clamorous for official recognition of their sex's importance in the campaign.

Here men have to boss our war supply buying, but that's comparatively an easy assignment alongside the ladies' problem.

Legitimate Help

War-time industrial production, has a reasonable excuse for hiking prices, also.

Suppose that a factory, hitherto engaged in supplying tin cans or bottle caps or some such thing, is required to transform itself, overnight, into plane, gun or munition-making. It can legitimately plead that it hasn't the equipment or personnel for its new function and, unless helped, will go bust and no longer be good for ANYTHING. That outfit isn't necessarily grating.

But suppose a guy's product is irrevocably in the peacetime class—unchangably so, as with groceries, meat and fuel for kitchen stoves? The wartime drain gives HIM a chance to boost his figures, making him a sure-enough profiteer.

Well, OPA, the agricultural department and various other agencies can keep an eye on HIM down to the point where he ceases to classify as a wholesaler, but retail merchants are pretty hard to supervise. They're too numerous and scattered to supervise from central headquarters. They're the birds the womenfolk are relied on to hold in line—first by warning 'em, then by reporting 'em to Uncle Sam.

ARMY USES JAP LABOR

WASHINGTON — Dynamic Assistant War Secretary John McCloy has just come back from an inspection trip to Pearl Harbor where he reports that it still is absolutely essential to use Japanese labor to help erect Hawaii's bristling defenses.

Just after Pearl Harbor, the War Department issued an order removing all Japanese from defense work in Hawaii. However, new commander Gen. Delos Emmons protested: "You can't do that. You don't know how many lathes you are stopping."

In the end he proved to be right. The Japanese were found to be essential to defense work, and the order was rescinded.

Japanese are now used in digging ditches to break up possible landing fields; building roads; and they even work in arsenals producing guns. Suspicious Japanese have been picked up. But it is impossible to test the loyalty of others. However, to get the vital defense work done in a hurry, the War Department is convinced there is no other out than to use Jap labor.

Furthermore the alternative of deporting Hawaii's huge Japanese population would be a tremendous job. They can't be shipped to California. And they can't be sent to a separate island, where they might establish a landing base for Japanese attack. So the present solution is to leave them where they are, carefully guarded.

Meanwhile, Pearl Harbor is on the alert with more protective devices than ever before in history. Every hour of the day and night patrol planes scour the air around the islands. No fleet, either by sea or air, could approach Hawaii undetected.

TROUBLE AHEAD

The day after Leon Henderson issued his sweeping price freezing order, the President asked him, "How are you getting on?"

"Well, I'd put it this way," said Henderson with a grin. "I feel like the boy who threw a rock through a window and is sure something is bound to happen."

HILLMAN IS THROUGH

He hasn't announced it yet, but former war labor chief Sidney Hillman has definitely decided not to take the White House staff job offered him by the President.

The announcement of the appointment implied Hillman had accepted it. Inside fact is he hasn't, and the statement apparently was worded as if he had in order to pressure Hillman into agreeing. He is still recuperating from exhaustion due to his prolonged strenuous work as a top war official, but when he leaves the hospital he will not go back to the government.

Hillman will resume the presidency of the powerful Amalgamated Clothing Workers, and then will embark on a triple-headed campaign to:

(1) Drive John L. Lewis out of the CIO; (2) force a showdown with labor elements playing ball undercover with Lewis; (3) fight against isolationists in

Ether First Used in Surgery 100 Years Ago Proves a Boon

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

ABOUT ONE hundred years ago right this week, some strange news was going about among the doctors in Georgia. A country practitioner in Jefferson, Georgia, had operated on March 30, 1842, Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

and had used ether to put the patient to sleep and had removed some tumors from his neck without any pain on the part of the patient.

Tried by Young Doctor

The doctor was Crawford Williamson Long, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Medical Department. He was then 26 years old and had only been in practice for a few years. This was the first time that ether had ever been deliberately used as a planned procedure for the purpose of making a patient unconscious and unaware of pain during a surgical operation. Indeed, except for a few sporadic and dubious trials at one time or another through the ages, it was the first time any agent had ever been used for that purpose.

Surgery before that must have been a horror to watch and to experience. The great thing about any operation was to get it over as fast as possible. He was the best operator who was the quickest. Sometimes opium and brandy were used and hypnosis was tried. The great French surgeon, Dupuytren, once made an insulting remark to a lady patient and when she fainted away from sensitiveness, operated on her before she had time to regain consciousness. But no method had been proved to be satisfactory.

The Doctor's Discovery

When Dr. Long was a student in Philadelphia, he and some other students used to inhale ether because they found its effects exhilarating, and when he started in practice in Jefferson some young men asked him to give them some laughing gas in order that they could have a good time at a party. He substituted ether and they found that it caused more liveliness than either laughing gas or brandy.

In fact, parties which were called "ether frolics" became quite the vogue. Dr. Long noticed that some of these young gentlemen under ether, while lurching around, would injure themselves quite severely but appeared to take no notice of the pain. In this way the idea occurred to him that ether could be deliberately used to induce insensibility in surgical operations.

Early in March, in 1842, 100 years ago, his opportunity presented itself. A young man named James M. Venable had some tumors on his neck which he wanted removed but this he had postponed on account of the dread of pain involved. Dr. Long suggested to him that he could put him to sleep with ether and he would feel no pain. In his little office in a brick building which is still standing in Jefferson, Georgia, this was accomplished in the presence of witnesses who were friends of Mr. Venable.

Later Dr. Long operated on Mr. Venable again for the removal of other tumors on his neck, and during the year 1842 he operated several times under ether for such things as the amputation of a toe, all of which are a matter of record.

Dr. Long did not make his discovery known to the medical world until after ether had been used in public for an operation in 1846 at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. This has somewhat dimmed the fame of his credit, but it is curious for us today to think that this great boon to mankind is so young as to be only 100 years old.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
D. R. L.: What causes mastitis of the breast? Is it a curable disease and is it serious?

Answer: Mastitis is a chronic inflammatory change in the breast probably due to a disturbance in the endocrine function. Its greatest danger is that it will be mistaken for cancer because it causes lumps to appear in the breast and on a diagnosis of cancer the breast will be removed. Treatment is best left to the discretion of the doctor.

H. S. Y.: In the past few years a large number of high school girls, including my own daughter, insist on wearing only anklets in the coldest weather and often no hats. Will this have any harmful effects, either now or in the future?

Answer: I am also old-fashioned enough to have this make me shudder, but candor compels me to admit that I have never seen any bad results from it.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Judicious Use of Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

WRITTEN FOR AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL PRESS ASSOCIATION

SYNOPSIS
Three young airline hostesses, TIBBY LANE, sweet and natural; STEENA WINTERS, beautiful and sophisticated, and MARG BAKER, plain, sturdy and direct, share an apartment together in New York, where they are based. A friend of Tibby's, TOMMY DARE, is spending his first year out of medical school at a clinic in Brooklyn. Steena sets her cap for WAYNE COURTRIGHT, wealthy official of the airline.

YESTERDAY: Steena comes home and joins Tibby and Tommy in waiting for news of the downed plane on which Marg was hostess.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

THERE WAS no denying now that there was tension in the little apartment, but it was the tension of anxiety. Waiting is always a strain, so that now, although there were three of them to share it—Tommy, Steena and Tibby—it was not lightened.

After a while, Steena said she believed she would change, if they would excuse her a few minutes. This last with one of her rare smiles for the young doctor. "I'm never comfortable in uniform," she explained. "Somehow I don't feel like a woman."

Tibby wondered how she could care how she felt or how she looked when Marg was in such grave danger, but were Steena herself in a crack-up she probably would be concerned as to her appearance. It was not due to heartlessness on Steena's part; it was just the fastidiousness that went with being so beautiful.

Steena had looked attractive enough in her uniform—womanly enough, too—but when she reappeared, wearing a lovely satin housecoat of sea green, a matching ribbon in her gorgeous hair, it was easy to see what she had meant by her remark. For now she looked positively alluring.

Had she gotten herself up like that just for Tommy? Tibby wondered. And then was ashamed at such a shoddy thought. Steena could not have helped spreading her feathers, like a peacock, had the only male in the vicinity been the janitor.

Nevertheless, the effect was not wasted on Dr. Dare, as was quite evident from the way his eyes approved the change in costume. He even said, "I don't like women in uniforms, either. I quite agree with you, Steena, that there's something well, mannish about the best of them."

"Not," he added with that gallantry that Tibby had noted he always brought out for Steena's benefit, "that you—or Tibby—could ever be mistaken for a man."

He got another smile from Steena for this, but Tibby did not think this was the time for fancy speeches. Besides, he had included her only to be polite. She said, "Suppose I make some coffee?"

That would help put in this dreadful waiting. It might help them to keep awake, for soon it would be midnight. It must have been around nine-thirty, a quarter of ten maybe, when they had heard that first news flash. Two or three hours ago—surely something more would be heard soon. Without doubt the plane's radio had been put out of use in that forced landing, but rescue ships had started out at once. "That's a good idea," Steena settled herself and the wide spread of her shimmering green gown, in a low chair, tilting back her lovely head, as if suddenly weary. "I could do with some coffee. This publicity business isn't all it's cracked up to be. I had to stand for HOURS. And those lights they focus on you hit you right in the eye and practically blind you, besides giving off so much heat that you sizzle as well—it's really hard work, posing."

Young Dr. Dare said he imagined it would be, although his tone seemed to indicate that he considered that sort of thing more suitable for a girl than flying. Tibby supposed it was not all fun, but she knew that Steena got a big kick out of doing it, since it was as Marg had said, right up her alley. Steena always remembered she was tired if there was anything to be done in the way of household duties, although maybe that was a low dig, too, Tibby conceded as she made the coffee, unassisted, and raided the icebox to see what she could find to offer with it.

When you were a great beauty, as Marg said, you did not have to be useful. Oh, why would she keep thinking of all the things Marg said—her dear, funny way of putting them so straight and pat. What if she never could say them any more . . . what if Marg had been seriously hurt—or worse? People were not usually just injured in a crack-up. They were much more likely to be killed outright, as Tibby was too well aware. Or in this case drowned, or dead—when found—from exposure.

"No phone call yet?" she asked, coming back into the living room, bearing the tray with cups and saucers and a plate of hastily-concocted sandwiches. She did not see how she could go on like this much longer. Not knowing was almost worse than knowing the worst—if it had to be that.

Steena shook her head. Tommy jumped up, looking rather guilty because he had just been grinning widely at something Steena had said, so that now, seeing Tibby's white face and hearing the anxiety in her voice, he did feel guilty. "I could phone Wayne," Steena suggested. "Of course I know he dislikes being called at his office. But this is different. And he says it depends, too, upon WHO calls him." Her tone held assurance that a call from her never would be unwelcome.

Tommy still could not get this other man placed. Was he a friend of Tibby's—that goody scene had registered friendship, the way he had held Tibby's hand and gazed down into her eyes—yet from other hints that had got into the open he appeared to be more a friend of Steena's.

Tibby said, "I don't believe I would—if I were you. I know he will phone just as soon as there is any news."

She said it so quietly, yet so positively, that Steena glanced at her sharply.

"Was Wayne here long?" she inquired.

"Not very." "He had been there about an hour, although at the time it had seemed longer, with Tibby wondering how she would explain to Steena his being there at all, an explanation that seemed unnecessary now."

"He surely seemed at home—and as if he intended staying on forever," Tommy gave his version.

"But he must have known I wouldn't be back until late," Steena said, her green eyes still shrewd and thoughtful. What was more important, Wayne must have known that Steena would not be home at all! All publicity calls came direct from his office.

Tibby did not offer any comment on this—or the other unasked questions in Steena's eyes. She was, of course, occupied in pouring and serving the coffee.

"He surely acted as if he hated to tear himself away—in spite of his rush," Tommy continued to present the picture as it had appeared to him—and to make matters worse, instead of better, according to Tibby's way of seeing it. "Who is he, anyway, besides a big shot in the company?" Now he would get this man placed once and for all.

"He's a VERY special friend of mine," Steena enlightened him, with a note of emphasis, which, no doubt, was a reminder to Tibby that she was the one who was not supposed to forget who Wayne Courtright was. "He's THE Wayne Courtright, famous flyer—I suppose you know he's giving Tibby lessons—millionaire, man about—"

"Lessons!" Tommy was learning a thing or two, but not what he had expected. "Yes, although why anyone should want to learn to fly is more than I can understand. When there's no REASON, I mean." Steena modified her flat statement, "Unless you own your own plane, for instance." Or unless a person had some ulterior motive, she might have added.

Tibby answered this unasked question. "Couldn't you want to learn just for the fun of it? For the wonderful sense of power and freedom?"

So she was learning to fly! Tommy thought Tib might have told him. But before anyone could say more, the phone rang. Both Steena and Tibby reached for it.

Bride-Elect Honored At Shower Wednesday Eve

Elizabeth Drum To Become Wife Of Gilbert Belt

Miss Elizabeth Drum, who will become the bride of Mr. Gilbert Belt of Columbus in the near future, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday, Mrs. Ione Reichelderfer and Miss Lucille McClure entertaining jointly at the Reichelderfer home, East Union street.

Lovely arrangements of tulips and sweet peas made a colorful setting for the early Spring party.

In addition to the honor guest those present were Mrs. V. D. Kerns, Mrs. Harold Hott, Mrs. Willis Green, Mrs. Harriet Hennes, Miss Mary A. Howard, Mrs. Tom Drum, Miss Rose Good, Miss Alma Glick and Miss Virginia (Jehcy of Circleville; Mrs. Elliott Howard and Miss Jane Drum of Columbus and Mrs. Walter Henize of Fayetteville.

Mrs. Kerns and Miss Good carried home favors for scores in the games.

A buffet dessert course was served by the hostesses.

Miss Drum received many beautiful and useful shower gifts.

Earnest Workers' Class

Seventeen members of the Earnest Workers' class of the Methodist church motored Wednesday to the new farm home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Parrett, near Lancaster. Mr. and Mrs. Parrett removed recently to that locality from their home on North Pickaway street.

The Rev. and Mrs. Neil Peterson were guests for the occasion. After a delightful lunch, the class presented the hosts a useful gift as an appreciation for their work in the group.

It was decided that the class would have a skating party Thursday, May 21, at the Laurelville skating rink.

The place of the next regular meeting, June 3, will be announced later.

St. Paul Ladies' Society

The Ladies' society of St. Paul Lutheran church met Thursday in the parish house where a fine session was enjoyed. Mrs. Ralph Fisher was in the chair for the devotional hour and conducted the following business period.

"Indian Missions" was the topic read by Mrs. Fisher and the "Outlook", a missionary magazine, was read and discussed by the members.

A special collection was taken for the India Lace School.

Mrs. John Sark and Mrs. Clarence Noecker, reported the Federation meeting held in Columbus the latter part of April.

Mrs. Harold Fisher announced that the annual Mother's Day banquet would be in the parish house May 9.

As June is the regular guest

HOME, HOSPITAL WORK CONTINUES FOR 47 YEARS

Dedicated May 9, 1895, the Circleville Home and Hospital will observe its 47th anniversary of continuous service Saturday.

Founded through the efforts of public spirited citizens headed by the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heffner, the institution was located in the school building on West Ohio street that had been abandoned as a separate school for Negro children of the community.

Mrs. Heffner was first president of the board of management and served through many years.

About two years ago, the home was removed to the Robert Colville residence, East Main street, because of the high cost of upkeep of the rambling old building.

At present there are nine residents at the home for which Mrs. George Holderman serves as matron.

Mrs. Frank J. Bennett is entering her second year as president of the board. Mrs. F. D. Richey of Ashville is vice president; Mrs. Charles G. Shulze serves as treasurer and Miss Sadie Brunner, as secretary.

keen interest in swing music. Since this is No. 1 on Jane Withers' list of hobbies, she and Charlie will have a congenial topic of conversation right from the start. They might, conceivably, break into a little impromptu rug-cutting at most any point in the proceedings.

It takes 26 sheep to out a single soldier—that's why wool is a weapon in total war. And because wool is a weapon, the cuffs on a man's pants and that extra width of skirt in a woman's dress, may mean the difference between life and death to a sick soldier on some far-flung battle field.

That's why the story of wool, from the sheep to the battlefield, will be dramatized on Three Thirde of the Nation, Wednesday, May 13, 10 p. m. over the Blue network.

ASHVILLE

"Every dog has his day" but these Ashville dogs are receiving strong notice from the owners of well started and growing gardens, that that "day he has" would better be spent somewhere else besides the garden. Dire vengeance will be dealt out to trespassing canines.

Ashville—This Saturday, May 9, is named as salvage collection day again—all day beginning at 8:30 a. m., so Chairman C. E. Mahaffey has announced. Collections will be made from nearby rural homes. Notify Mayor Fred Hines or C. E. Mahaffey by phone if in possession of salvage for removal. A call will be made for it. And please do not mix egg shells and coffee grounds with the otherwise good junk.

Ashville—If appearances count for anything the staking off part for the foundation of Bill Wheeler's new dwelling over on Jefferson avenue, means that that new house will have some size to it. And just across the street from this one are two other new dwellings, the one, Woodrow Bandy and the other Harrison Pennington. The two on the east side, those of Mrs.
